Burleigh moved to strike out the word "from" in line 2, article one, and insert in the state, for at least three months of each year.

Chessman moved the adoption as amended it should stand as reported by the committee. Carried.

The public free schools of the state shall in order to secure the advantages of a state government, do, in accordance with the provisions of the enabling act of congress, and the provisions of the enabling act of congress, and the provisions of the enabling act of congress, and the provisions of the enabling act of congress, and the provisions of the enabling act of congress, and the mount of the motion to adopt the substitute was then put, and Mr. Clark gaining the floor spoke against the adoption of the substitute. He saw no reason why this dark splotch upon American civilization—the grand jury system—should be retained. It had been said upon the floor that Wisconsin had never had and occasion to call a grand jury since its partial abolishment some years ago. If that were true Montana should abolish the system altogether the provisions of the enabling act of congress.

It is a question of money with ninety-nine in a hundred what clothes they shall wear. You are not a sure judge of Clothing-nobody is. The best judges do not pretend to be. Nobody can be, really, who is not in the active Clothing trade. Why, then, is it a question of money?-take it all in all, to you that make it so-for ninety-nine in a hundred don't go wrong in a question of money. We venture to assert that our Clothing is less costly and more reliable than many others. That is, take it steadily paid for.

Selected lots in Grand Avenue, corners, however, that low prices are nothing unless joined to reliability that 100x150, on proposed Motor line, $12 per foot. Also, corners and inside lots in all parts of this addition, one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

It is useless for any pe who has been in our sto the last month, to say "H how's biz?" If they were blind they could see "bi good." Why was it good is when every clothing fir Helena has been an active a ber of the "kickers club.

Why, simply because showed about as many as all the other houses bined. And when a man that he did not want to we whole year for the merc tailor, in case he needed a mer suit, he put a double and calls on us, sees ju well made, just as good t and much more stylish ments, and as a natural co quence buys his suit and ke us busy.

Did you ever hear about clearing sales? We l, we about to start one, pretty so and you can safely gamble what little fur is left on hides of some of our moss ba will fly when they see prices we quote. Among th we will mention some of specialties. Don't you call to mind pretty line of Irish tweeds, production of Hill & Son Dublin? We had them in colors-gray and brown were about as universally mired as anything we have fered this year, but many ple thought they were h but they were not. The trop but it makes no difference. knife goes into them just same, and the consequence from this day the $22 scratched and $17 appears. But we have plenty o plums for those to eat who ha money to buy. The expre mer weights, that were chased at 65 cents on the dol and they go for the same centage. Many of these came in our first purchases ar were marked $20, $22, up $28. Now none of them marked over $20, and although t is a rank shame, we have ome of them out at $10. can borrow money at 5 per cer a month to pay for your nex summer's suit and still b
